

Dear Colleagues,

I'd like to introduce CAIN Health to you. I have been working with CAIN Health for over a year and have been extremely satisfied with their competence and professionalism.

CAIN Health brings a vast wealth of knowledge to revenue cycle management that is invaluable. They have deep experience that is unmatched in the healthcare economy. CAIN Health is very concerned with patient engagement, a rarity in today's market. Their commitment to successful patient engagement is at the core of everything they do.

I am careful and deliberate in who we chose to work with, and CAIN Health's professionalism and dedication have made aligning with them easy. CAIN Health is a perfect fit for us. If you are a healthcare provider and tired of the same unsuccessful revenue capture vehicles and you are ready for something that actually works, I would urge you to consider CAIN Health as your next solution provider.
