

To Whom It May Concern:

Since 2015, CAIN Health and their services have been a valuable part of Growth Capital International's work in the healthcare field. I would encourage you to see how their services, especially those directly involved in the revenue cycle of healthcare, can benefit you and your business.

CAIN Health brings significant knowledge and experience to the table. I have constantly been impressed with responsiveness and drive to satisfy their clients. They are incredibly actionable and have experience in the healthcare field with practices both large and small.

Through CAIN Health's exhaustive network, they offer invaluable consulting and know how that can be easily put into place within your practice. You can learn more by contacting CAIN Health at 1-800-817-2148 or cainhealth.com.

Sincerely
